

LOCKDOWN

No loo rolls, no bread rolls
No lamb, no jam
No flour, no butter
Discarded face masks, lying in the gutter
Welcome to lockdown!

No buses, no trains
No holidays, no planes
Long queues, long hair
No face mask? people stare
Welcome to Lockdown!

Many are near the end of their tether,
But remember 'We're all in this together'
And while the end may not be coming too soon,
At least in the meantime, we all have Zoom!
Welcome to Lockdown!
